We appreciate the opportunity to be a part of this review process. It appears that many of our comments from the review of Draft 1 were addressed and/or incorporated – thank you.

We do not have any other specific feedback on Draft 2 of the Residential Climate Controls specification but look forward to future iterations.

Kind Regards,

Dear Climate Control Manufacturer or Other Interested Stakeholder:

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is pleased to announce the release of the Draft 2 Version 1.0 ENERGY STAR® Residential Climate Controls specification. Enclosed for your review and comment you will find: a cover memo from Abigail Daken, US EPA; the Draft 2 Version 1.0 document; and a summary of stakeholder comments received on Draft 1 Version 1.0 Residential Climate Controls specification.

Stakeholders are encouraged to provide feedback to EPA by July 30, 2010. The documents linked below will soon be available on the ENERGY STAR Product Development Web site at www.energystar.gov/newspecs.

Save the Date: Similar to the Draft 1 review cycle, EPA will host a stakeholder webinar on Wednesday July 14, 2010 from 12 - 2 p.m. EDT to discuss the Draft 2 Version 1.0 ENERGY STAR Residential Climate Controls specification. If you would like to participate in this discussion, please RSVP to ClimateControls@energystar.gov by COB Monday, July 12th, 2010. Conference call and log-in information will be provided to attendees prior to the meeting.

If you have any questions, please contact Abigail Daken, EPA, at Daken.Abigail@epa.gov or Doug Frazee, ICF International, at dfrazee@icfi.com.

Thank you.
