

Comments Received Via E-mail From Lawson Calhoun, Calhoun Properties, Inc.

It is my understanding that SEER 14 air conditioners will be required for air conditioners in the Atlanta Area under the new rules. High humidity levels in our homes will become even higher as 14 SEER units will not extract enough humidity from the air. We will be required to install dehumidification units at additional expense both for the units and energy consumption. Doesn't make energy sense to me.