

Comments Via E-mail From Jim Benney, National Fenestration Rating Council

I disagree with guidelines in the mandatory provisions allowing the choice between three ENERGY STAR product categories. ALL Energy Star product categories should be required; at the very least; Energy Star Windows should be required. Allowing poor performing windows on the building envelope is a poor energy strategy!