

ENERGY STAR® SUMMARY OF APPLIANCE PROGRAMS

The simple choice for energy efficiency.

SEPTEMBER 2015 UPDATE

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is pleased to provide the 2015 ENERGY STAR® Summary of Appliance Programs (Summary). The Summary provides an overview of a variety of programs offered by utilities and other energy efficiency program sponsors in the United States to promote ENERGY STAR certified commercial and residential clothes washers, clothes dryers, dehumidifiers, dishwashers, refrigerators, freezers, room air conditioning, and room air cleaners and purifiers. The Summary includes information provided by energy efficiency program sponsors and describes their current program offerings in 2015-2016 and beyond.

Each ENERGY STAR appliance program is summarized with a focus on incentives (e.g., mail-in rebates and recycling), program contacts, and other relevant program details. Participation in the Summary is voluntary and therefore does not represent all promotions and incentives available across the country. The information in this Program Summary is current as of July 27, 2015; more current or additional information may be available at www.energystar.gov/rebatefinder.

The Summary of Appliance Programs is divided into the following sections:

1. Executive Summary
2. Program Budget Map, National Promotion Charts and Graphs – Overview of promotion types for appliance programs across the United States.
3. Programs Information – A summary table of current appliance promotions organized by state.
4. Partner Contact Directory – Program websites, hotlines, and contact information for program managers.

Executive Summary

The 2015 ENERGY STAR Summary of Appliance Programs (Summary) presents information submitted by 155 energy efficiency program sponsors from across the United States, including 14 “umbrella organizations” and statewide programs running promotions on behalf of or in conjunction with 229 cooperative or municipal utilities and investor-owned utilities. Partners have provided information on 1,589 individual incentive and promotion programs for ENERGY STAR appliances including clothes washers, clothes dryers, dehumidifiers, dishwashers, refrigerators, freezers, room air conditioning, and room air cleaners and purifiers. To improve the accuracy of available promotions nationwide, information submitted under umbrella organizations has been accounted for individually for each member utility, unless otherwise indicated as a statewide or centrally-administered program.

From the information submitted by energy efficiency program sponsors, the key highlights include:

Program Budgets – Partners were asked to categorize their program budgets into buckets demonstrating order of magnitude and range (e.g., less than $50K, $50K - $250K, $250K-$1 million). To increase granularity of data collected beginning in 2014, partners were given additional options for budget buckets. To calculate state totals and the national total, the mid-point of each bucket range was taken and multiplied by the total number of partner programs identifying with a given bucket. Since exact budget information has not been provided, nor have all partners given budget information (see the “Appliance Program Budget Map” on page 4 for more details), a precise total cannot be determined. In 2011, based on the midpoint calculation, appliance programs were funded at about $208 million. In 2012, that number increased to about $222 million and in 2013, the national total was just under $224 million. In 2014, with the additional budget buckets, the national budget increased to $271 million. In 2015, with the same budget options as 2014, the national total was just over $249 million. The decrease in budget may be explained by actual declines in program budgets and/or by fewer partners reporting their program budget information.

Promotions by Dollar Amount – Promotion amounts in 2015 range from $10 for dehumidifiers and room air conditioners to $400 for clothes dryers that received the 2014 ENERGY STAR Emerging Technology Award<sup>1</sup>. The average incentive amount for dehumidifiers declined by 26% and average incentives for new freezer or room air conditioning declined by around 5%. Average incentives for dishwashers increased by just over 16% and for clothes washers and refrigerators, just over 13%. Several partners offer higher incentives for ENERGY STAR Most Efficient clothes washers, dishwashers, and refrigerators. See “Average Promotion Amount for ENERGY STAR Appliances 2011-2015” on page 5 for more details on average incentive amounts.

Promotions by Product – As in 2011-2014, incentives for clothes washers in 2015 lead the group, representing 16% of all appliance promotions and 24% of incentives for new appliance purchases (excluding recycling incentives). Incentives for new refrigerator purchase, refrigerator recycling, and freezer recycling each represent between 12% and 13% of total incentives. Dishwashers, dehumidifiers, and room air conditioning each comprised between 9% and 10% of total promotions. The remainder is comprised of room air cleaners and purifiers and clothes dryers along with the “other” and “other recycling” categories comprised of various products. The number of incentives for clothes dryers nearly doubled from 2014, going from 33 incentives to 64 incentives with the introduction of the ENERGY STAR specification for clothes dryers. See “2015 ENERGY STAR Appliance Promotions by Product Type” on page 5 and “ENERGY STAR Appliance Promotions by Product Type 2011-2015” on page 6 for more details.

<sup>1</sup> The ENERGY STAR® Emerging Technology Award is given to innovative technologies that meet rigorous performance criteria to reduce energy use and lower greenhouse gas emissions, without sacrificing features or functionality. The Award provides forward-thinking, environmentally conscious consumers and end users with a tool to identify and purchase cutting-edge technologies that offer energy savings and help to reduce their carbon footprint. For more information visit <http://www.energystar.gov/about/awards/energy-star-emerging-technology-award>.

Promotions by Type – Similar to 2011-2014, the vast majority of promotions in 2015, 66% of new product purchase incentives and 94% of recycling incentives, are mail-in rebates. Appliance promotions with instant rebates, bill credits, low-interest loans, manufacturer or retailer buy-downs, and midstream incentives account for the rest. See “2015 ENERGY STAR Appliance Promotions by Incentive Type” on page 6 for more details.

Promotions by Region – Similar to 2011-2014, the Midwest region has the greatest number of appliance promotions with 1,114, an increase of 4 from 2014. The West region follows next with 179, which is a small decline in submissions from 2014. The Northeast (124) and Southeast (46) have increased total promotions from 2014 while the Mid-Atlantic (69) and Southwest (57) have decreased total promotions. See “2015 ENERGY STAR Appliance Promotions by Type and Region” on page 7 for more details.

Appliance Program Budget Map

The map below shows program budgets for appliance programs by state as reported by the energy efficiency program sponsors.

NOTE: Energy efficiency program sponsors in the “undetermined” states may implement appliance promotion programs in 2015 and beyond, but were unable or did not elect to provide budget information. Likewise, states highlighted in color may not represent all the partner program budgets, as partners in those states also may have elected not to provide budget information. See the individual program entries for details.

National Appliance Promotion Charts and Graphs

Percentages have been rounded to the nearest whole number for values over 2%. Totals may not equal 100%.

Appliance Program Information

The table below provides information on products being promoted around the country by energy efficiency program sponsors. The information is organized by state and all promotions and incentives are for ENERGY STAR certified products unless otherwise specified. In some cases, energy efficiency program sponsors have indicated which partner types they are most interested in working with, but may also be open to working with different partner types. Please contact the program sponsor representative, found in the Partner Contact Directory following this section, to learn more about partnership opportunities. Members of umbrella organization are listed as footnotes. Target population is assumed to be residential unless otherwise noted.
