

I support the proposed standards. 70% of the windows we sell in Chicago and Cincinnati have an NFRC rating of U .19

The lower standard of .30 acts as a deterrent to promoting the better performing windows. Homeowners think they should not buy anything better than what the Energy Star number is.

Mike Gilkey

President and CEO

Gilkey Window Company