

Organization	Voluntary / Mandatory	Purpose	Information	Lighting Products Covered	Logo or Certification Mark	Contacts
ENERGY STAR® U.S. Environmental Protection Agency	Voluntary	To help consumers save money and protect the environment through energy efficient products and practices.	Labels products in more than 60 categories that meet strict energy efficiency guidelines set by the EPA and DOE. Requires third-party testing and certification.	Residential <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CFL light bulbs • LED light bulbs • Residential Luminaires • Decorative Light Strings • Ceiling Fans with light kits 	 Logo use guidelines in place	www.energystar.gov For questions regarding ENERGY STAR lighting products, please contact: luminaires@energystar.gov lamps@energystar.gov
LED Lighting Facts® Label U.S. Department of Energy (DOE)	Voluntary	Showcases LED products for general illumination from manufacturers who commit to testing products and reporting performance results according to industry standards.	For lighting buyers, designers, and energy efficiency programs. The label provides information essential to evaluating products and identifying the best options.	Commercial and residential Solid State Lighting Products		www.lightingfacts.com For questions regarding the DOE LED Lighting Facts Label please contact: info@lightingfacts.com
Lighting Facts Label Federal Trade Commission (FTC)	Mandatory	The label on the package provides consumers with information about the bulb's brightness, estimated yearly energy cost, life, light appearance, and wattage.	Announced on June 18, 2010, the label became effective on product packaging produced as of January 1, 2012.	Required for all general purpose medium-based (E26) lamps.	 Front Back	www.ftc.gov
The DesignLights™ (DLC) Consortium A collaboration of utility companies and regional energy efficiency organizations	Voluntary	DLC is committed to raising awareness of the benefits of efficient lighting in commercial buildings.	Products not generally covered under the ENERGY STAR program. Requires third party testing and fee to list products.	Commercial Products not generally covered under the ENERGY STAR program such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Roadway • Parking Garage 	 Logo use guidelines in place	www.designlights.org
Safety Certifications	Voluntary (but required by most customers)	Products with one or more of these safety designations have been tested to industry standards to ensure safe operation in normal environments.	UL: Underwriters Laboratories Inc. CSA: Canadian Standards Association ETL: Originally a mark of ETL Testing Laboratories, now a mark of Intertek Testing Services.	Available for all products		www.ul.com www.csa-international.org www.intertek.com