

NRCan agrees with the increase in level to 92% for gas furnaces. NRCan will provide support to EPA with respect to the electrical consumption furnaces. Canada is currently developing work in this area and will share this information with EPA.

Anne Wilkins
Senior Program Manager, Equipment Labelling
Natural Resources Canada