

Bravo for not including an emissivity value as a requirement. This is the correct decision. We welcome the opportunity to participate in ongoing research to determine the true effect of lower emissivities in different geographical locations. Please contact us when this research begins and we will provide LO/MIT-I for testing.

Bob Aresty/SOLEC