State Spotlights

"As millions of Americans have embraced the ENERGY STAR brand and products in their homes, Sears Holdings Corporation has embraced ENERGY STAR in our buildings, culture, and product offerings. By integrating ENERGY STAR into product selection, reporting and our site level budgets, we have been able to greatly improve our retail store's energy efficiency as demonstrated by the average decrease in energy consumption by over 36% since 2008." Keith Klug, Director of Energy, Sears Holdings Corporation

"IREM believes that energy efficiency through ENERGY STAR is good, quality real estate management. We strongly encourage use of ENERGY STAR tools and resources to manage expenses and resource consumption at investment real estate properties, and the ENERGY STAR awards help us get that message across to our members and the industry." Angela Aeschliman, Chair of Sustainability Advisory Board, Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM)

"LaSalle Investment Management is proud to partner with ENERGY STAR and leverage its resources to not only enhance our bottom line, but also highlight our broader efforts to consistently act as a responsible corporate citizen." Jason Kern, Chief Executive Officer, Americas, LaSalle Investment Management
