State Spotlights

"Implementing programs that use ENERGY STAR standards allows us, as a municipal utility, to leverage energy efficiency in the local community in a way that is impactful and current with the highest standards in energy efficiency technology and innovation." Lucia Bourgeois, Energy Management Specialist, Columbia Water & Light

Columbia Water & Light, a municipal utility with a community-centered philosophy, is a leader among utilities in delivering energy efficiency programs, expanding the reach of Home Performance with ENERGY STAR program by establishing new partnerships with local utilities, regional groups, and the Green Building Registry.

Refrigeration equipment manufacturer, True Manufacturing (True Food Service Equipment), deserves recognition for its use of alternative refrigerants as well as its marketing of ENERGY STAR certified products through trade shows, product labeling, and specification sheet labeling.
