State Spotlights

"ENERGY STAR is a key part of our energy management program and drives what we do each day. We rely on ENERGY STAR scores for benchmarking our properties, making strategic capital investment decisions, and gauging progress towards our energy and carbon reduction targets." David Crum, Energy Manager, Highwoods Properties

"Our partnership with ENERGY STAR is a fantastic platform to help us drive energy reductions, conserve natural resources, and reduce our environmental impact, all while saving the company millions of dollars. With ENERGY STAR's brand recognition and its ongoing support and validation of our efforts, our employees around the world are inspired to engage in continual improvement activities that benefit the company and the communities where we operate." Mike Faircloth, Group President, Global Supply Chain, Information Technology and E-Commerce, Hanes Brands Inc

"ENERGY STAR is trusted by our customers and we are committed to helping our customers find the right product for their needs. Providing our associates with ENERGY STAR resources allows us to better engage in the dialogue of energy and cost savings that our customers value." Chris Cassell, Director of Corporate Sustainability, Lowes Home Improvement
