State Spotlights

"A. O. Smith has a long-trusted history of innovation ... The partnership with ENERGY STAR reaffirms our commitment to create quality, energy efficient products consumers expect and trust. As the only manufacturer with this partnership, it says a lot about who we are and the values we view as important." David Chisolm, VP of Marketing, AOS

"The ENERGY STAR program has played a major role in advancing not only the energy efficiency but the overall quality of the ventilation product choices available to both pros and consumers." Patrick Nielsen, Global Technical Products Manager, Broan-NuTone LLC

"With each day comes a new challenge for building owners to navigate. What's the best product, service, tool, or dashboard? It's tough for anyone to be an expert but having EPA ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager helps cut through the noise. It's cost and time effective, reliable, and tested over time. Rivion uses and promotes ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager as a single stop for anyone looking for a starting point. With this tool we help single buildings to large portfolios navigate with a clear goal – save energy and enhance the bottom line." Al Skodowski, Principal, Rivion
