Families and businesses are saving with the help of ENERGY STAR®

Colorado is home to 380 businesses and organizations participating in U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR program:

- 11 manufacturers of ENERGY STAR certified products
- 28 companies supporting independent certification of ENERGY STAR products, homes, and apartments
- 160 companies building ENERGY STAR certified homes and apartments and many businesses, schools, governments, and faith-based groups using ENERGY STAR to reduce energy waste.

ENERGY STAR Activity in Colorado

3.3 million customers served by ENERGY STAR utility partners in 2021

7,809 buildings (more than 703 million square feet) benchmarked using EPA's ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager in 2021

58,300 homes and apartments earned the ENERGY STAR to-date

1,268 buildings earned the ENERGY STAR to-date, including 347 schools, 22 hotels, 6 hospitals, 467 office buildings and 4 industrial plants.

555 17th Street, Denver, CO. ENERGY STAR certified since 1999.

State Spotlights

McStain Neighborhoods, a regional home builder, constructed over 60 ENERGY STAR certified homes in 2021, for a cumulative total of more than 2,000 since joining the program in 2001, and achieved EPA's WaterSense and Indoor airPLUS certifications within their Arras Park housing project as complements to ENERGY STAR certification.

EnergyLogic, Inc., a home energy rating company, certified more than 1,500 homes as ENERGY STAR in 2021 and provided technical support and training for industry partners to ensure consistent application of ENERGY STAR program requirements.

The State and three local governments, including Boulder, Denver, and Fort Collins, rely on EPA's ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager tool as the foundation for their energy benchmarking and transparency policies.

"Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver has been building high quality, energy efficient homes in partnership with working class families for 40 years. Habitat Metro Denver was the first nonprofit homebuilder in the country to build a home certified to meet the standards of ENERGY STAR v3, Indoor airPLUS, and WaterSense." - Robyn Burns, Director of Communications & Marketing, Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver of Denver, Colorado.
