Families and businesses are saving with the help of ENERGY STAR®

Kansas is home to more than 102 businesses and organizations participating in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency’s ENERGY STAR program:

- 16 manufacturers of ENERGY STAR certified products
- 12 companies supporting independent certification of ENERGY STAR products and homes
- 14 companies building ENERGY STAR certified homes

as well as many businesses, school districts, governments, and faith-based groups using ENERGY STAR resources to reduce energy waste in their facilities.

Across the state of Kansas

- 375,809 customers are served by ENERGY STAR utility partners
- 3,278 homes have earned the ENERGY STAR
- 4,025 buildings (nearly 300 million square feet) have been benchmarked using EPA’s ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager
- 255 buildings have earned the ENERGY STAR for superior efficiency, including 125 schools, 2 hotels, 52 office buildings, and 1 industrial plant

State Spotlight

“At Koch, we believe the role of business in society is to provide products and services people value while using fewer resources and respecting the environment. We look at effective energy management as a win-win that benefits the company, our customers, the communities in which we operate and the environment.” – David Dotson, VP Operations and Compliance, Koch Industries, Inc.

Recent Partner of the Year Winner

Koch Industries, Inc.

In 2016, Koch companies maintained a high level of performance, improving energy efficiency in its chemicals and paper businesses by as much as two percent. Not only has Koch saved more than $270 million across all its businesses since 2011—including approximately $34 million in 2016 alone—it has also built an extensive energy manager network to convey best practices, provide training, inform about new technologies and enhance its businesses’ performance. In 2015 and 2016, Koch invested more than $600 million in energy efficiency projects across Koch businesses. The company is also encouraging other U.S. manufacturers to join EPA’s ENERGY STAR program to improve energy efficiency and reduce energy costs.
