

MASSACHUSETTS

The simple choice for energy efficiency.

Updated April 2019

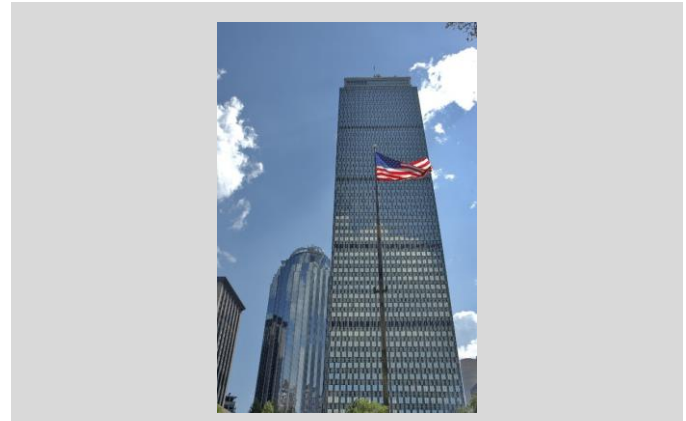

Families and businesses are saving with the help of ENERGY STAR®

Massachusetts is home to about 480 businesses and organizations participating in U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR program:

- 33 manufacturers of ENERGY STAR certified products
- 25 companies supporting independent certification of ENERGY STAR products and homes
- 55 companies building ENERGY STAR certified homes, 5 of which are committed to building 100% ENERGY STAR, as well as many businesses, schools, governments, and faith-based groups using ENERGY STAR to reduce energy waste.

Across Massachusetts

- 3.1 million customers were served by ENERGY STAR utility partners in 2018
- 8,777 buildings (almost 759 million square feet) were benchmarked in 2018 using EPA's ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager
- 25,585 homes have earned the ENERGY STAR
- 789 buildings have earned the ENERGY STAR for superior efficiency, including 91 schools, 35 hotels, 4 hospitals, 365 office buildings and 2 industrial plants.

State Spotlights

Staples the Office Superstore, the world's largest office products company, based in Framingham, reduced its weather-normalized source energy intensity by 3.2 percent in 2016, equating to $1.2 million in savings, and certified 71 buildings, bringing its total number of ENERGY STAR certified buildings to 761 nationwide.

Raytheon Company, a Waltham-based technology and innovation leader specializing in defense, civil government and cybersecurity solutions, achieved a 3.6 percent reduction in absolute energy consumption in 2016, avoiding more than $2 million in annual energy costs.

Beacon Capital Partners LLC, a real estate investment firm based in Boston, achieved an ENERGY STAR Score of 75 or higher for more than 90 percent of its properties in 2016, with an average portfolio score of 85.8, using programs to raise tenant awareness of ENERGY STAR and energy savings opportunities.

"The ENERGY STAR program has been invaluable to our success, helping us to develop companywide strategies to reduce our carbon footprint and energy costs. Since becoming ENERGY STAR partners in 2000, we have cut energy consumption and preserved valuable resources." – Kim Caruso, Vice President, Corporate Operations, Raytheon Company
