

NORTH CAROLINA

The simple choice for energy efficiency.

Updated April 2019

Families and businesses are saving with the help of ENERGY STAR®

North Carolina is home to about 510 businesses and organizations participating in U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR program:

- 36 manufacturers of ENERGY STAR certified products
- 37 companies supporting independent certification of ENERGY STAR products and homes
- 257 companies building ENERGY STAR certified homes, 7 of which are committed to building 100% ENERGY STAR, as well as many businesses, schools, governments, and faith-based groups using ENERGY STAR to reduce energy waste.

Across North Carolina

- 3.9 million customers were served by ENERGY STAR utility partners in 2018
- 5,587 buildings (more than 480 million square feet) were benchmarked in 2018 using EPA's ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager
- 83,940 homes have earned the ENERGY STAR
- 1,628 buildings have earned the ENERGY STAR for superior efficiency, including 517 schools, 19 hotels, 6 hospitals, 304 office buildings and 3 industrial plants.

Wells Fargo Center, Charlotte, NC ENERGY STAR Certified in 2013.

State Spotlights

HanesBrands Inc. implemented 223 projects identified through energy treasure hunts in 2016, yielding nearly $2 million in energy savings.

"...the ENERGY STAR program has helped us to become a better builder and provide better homes for our customers" – Homes by Dickerson

"Nationwide Marketing Group truly values our partnership with ENERGY STAR. It's exciting to see the impact we've made through our strong partnerships with vendors, enabling us to drive the sales of ENERGY STAR qualified models and cause the retirement of older, less efficient major appliances and consumer electronics..." – Richard Weinberg, Senior Vice President for Marketing, Nationwide Marketing Group

"Our partnership with ENERGY STAR and the efforts of our employees has saved the company tens of millions of dollars while minimizing our impact on the environment." – Mike Faircloth, President, Chief Global Supply Chain & IT Officer, HanesBrands Inc.
