Dear ENERGY STAR® Commercial Food Service Partners and Stakeholders:

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) invites you to participate in its next installment of the commercial food service (CFS) webinar series! This webinar series covers a range of topics which highlight strategies to leverage the ENERGY STAR logo, tools, and resources, ENERGY STAR partner success stories, and more!

The November webinar will spotlight EPA's Responsible Appliance Disposal (RAD) program including partnership opportunities as well as other ways CFS partners, stakeholders, and restaurant operators can engage with the program and equipment recycling in their area. The webinar will also demonstrate how utilities/energy efficiency program sponsors (EEPS) are supporting equipment recycling.
