Long Form

<PARTNER NAME> has a long history of partnering with U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR program to help our customers save energy, save money, and protect the planet/climate.

As PARTNER NAME> team members, you play an important role in that effort! So, as we prepare to celebrate ENERGY STAR Day on October 11, we wanted to take a moment to thank you, and share resources to help you save energy in your home, too! Improving the energy efficiency of your home will save energy, while also making your home more comfortable, lowering your energy bills, and reducing your impact on the climate. To make these upgrades more affordable, there are income eligible funding programs along with utility rebates (in certain areas) and tax credits that are available to everyone.

Together with ENERGY STAR, <PARTNER NAME> invites you to explore all the ways you can save today, save tomorrow, and save for good! Visit energystar.gov/saveforgood to learn more.
